

Registration Terms and Conditions

These REGISTRATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS ("T&C") govern Competitive Carriers Association's ("CCA") 2027 Summit ("Summit," "Event") at the Phoenix Park Hotel ("Venue") in Washington, DC, taking place February 9 – 10, 2027 ("Event Date").

- 1. Payment. Full payment is due upon registration. Event participant ("Attendee") is not considered registered until payment is received by CCA. Payment must be made by credit card. CCA accepts all major credit cards including VISA, Mastercard, American Express, and Discover. Check, wire transfer, and other forms of payment are not accepted.
- 2. Cancellations. All Summit registrations are nonrefundable. Attendees who are no longer able to attend the Summit may transfer their paid registration to an alternate Attendee.
 - 2.1 Transfers. Attendees may transfer their fully paid registration to another Attendee. The Attendee wishing to make the transfer must send a written notice to CCA's Event Team with details of the transfer and new Attendee information.
- 3. Admission Regulations. Individuals who seek to enter the Summit and any other related events (including any that take place off-site) must be wearing an official Summit registration badge. The name on the badge must be the name of the bearer. Badges must be worn at all times.
- 4. Americans with Disabilities Act. If an Attendee requires special assistance, including auxiliary aids, interpreters, or other reasonable accommodations while at the Summit, please contact CCA's Event Team at least two (2) weeks prior to Event Date. CCA will make reasonable efforts to accommodate requests after this date.
- 5. Non-Discrimination. CCA is committed to providing a safe, professional, and welcoming environment for all Event participants. CCA prohibits discrimination, harassment, and bullying against any person for any reason, including age, ancestry, disability or handicap, national origin, race, religion, gender, sexual or affectional orientation, gender identity, appearance, matriculation, political affiliation, marital status, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. CCA is committed to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment to all participants, and has no tolerance for discrimination, harassment, or bullying in any form at CCA-related events. Participants are expected to adhere to these principles and respect the rights of others.
- 6. Operation and Conduct. Weapons, illegal substances, and unauthorized alcohol are prohibited at the Event. Smoking, including e-cigarettes and vaping, is permitted only in designated outdoor areas as specified by the Venue. Attendee is responsible for all damages to property caused by themselves or their personnel. Should such damage occur, Attendee is liable to the owner of the damaged property. Attendee shall not, without prior written consent of CCA, distribute or permit the distribution of any advertising material, literature, souvenir items, or promotional materials in or about the Venue. CCA reserves the right to deny admission to or remove any Attendee who violates these Terms and Conditions, engages in disruptive or unsafe conduct, or fails to comply with reasonable instructions from CCA personnel or Venue staff.

7. Verbal Agreements. CCA, including CCA's Board of Directors and employees, will not be bound by any verbal agreements, representations, or statements between CCA, Attendees, sponsors, or any supplier.

8. Event Changes. CCA reserves the right to modify the Event schedule, speakers, programming, or Venue as necessary. CCA will make reasonable efforts to communicate material changes through the Event website or other appropriate channels

9. Force Majeure. CCA shall not be held liable for any delay, cancellation, postponement, relocation, or modification of the Event resulting from circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of God, fire, flood, explosion, severe weather or other extreme environmental conditions, natural disasters, disruptions of utilities, governmental actions, civil unrest, war, declarations of pandemic or epidemic health emergencies, strikes, labor disputes, transportation difficulties, labor shortage, or other events beyond CCA's reasonable control.

In the event of cancellation, postponement, relocation, or modification of the Event due to such circumstances, CCA reserves the right to determine whether registration fees will be refunded, credited towards a future event, or applied to a rescheduled Event, subject to applicable law. CCA shall not be held responsible for any travel, lodging, or other expenses incurred by Attendees in connection with the Event,

10. Indemnification by Attendee. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Attendee agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless CCA and its officers, directors, employees, representatives, and agents from and against any third-party claims, demands, actions, liabilities, damages, losses, cuts, and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), arising out of or resulting from the negligence or willful misconduct of any Attendee or their representatives or agents; attendee's violation of applicable laws or regulations; or attendee's material breach of these Terms and Conditions, in each case, in connection with the Event.

11. Data Protection. Attendee agrees that any CCA member lists, member contact information, and member directories ("CCA Member Information") and Event attendee lists and Event Attendee contact information ("CCA Event Attendee Information") shall be used solely for the purpose of contacting Event Attendees in connection with the Event and in compliance with all applicable laws. CCA Member Information shall not be copied, shared, stored, or otherwise retained by Attendee without CCA's express written consent. Attendee may continue to store and use CCA Event Attendee Information after the date of the Event but may not copy or share it without CCA's express written consent. Attendee shall treat CCA Member Information and CCA Event Attendee Information as confidential and protect it from unauthorized access.

12. CCA Attendee Directory. Attendee understands and consents that by registering for this Event their registration details will be added to the Event attendee directory ("CCA Attendee Directory") and shared with CCA's sponsors and other event partners ("Event Partners"). Attendee allows CCA and Event Partners to send them information regarding industry news, future events, and more. A list of Event Partners can be found on the Summit website. Once subscribed, Attendee can tailor what they receive from CCA and its Event Partners at any time or unsubscribe. CCA does not sell, and prohibits the sale of, the Attendee Directory. This is subject to CCA's Privacy Policy referenced on the Event Homepage.

13. Photography/Video Material. Attendee understands that CCA or its agents may take photographs or videos during the Event and may edit and/or use such materials on its website, social media accounts, promotional purposes, and for any other lawful purpose in the ordinary course of its business. An attendee is permitted to use hand-held cameras and/or smart phones to take photographs and capture digital images for personal, non-commercial use, provided the photography is not disruptive. CCA disclaims all liability for the capture of your image in any multimedia format by other attendees at the event.

14. Publicity. Speakers at Event acknowledge that CCA may share biographical information with event attendees or otherwise for Event promotion via CCA's website or social media and may request a photograph for Event promotional materials.

15. Acknowledgment of Terms. By registering for Event and submitting payment, Attendee acknowledges and agrees to adhere to all policies outlined herein. Violations may result in dismissal from the Event.
